

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of arrogant corporate disregard of the public interest.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Sinclair's decision to order its stations to play an anti-Kerry piece (about actions 30+ years old) just before a very close national election is unwarranted interference with the nation's political processes. Corporations do not get a vote in November!

If this un-American decision is allowed to stand, Sinclair should be punished and its licenses revoked. Thank you.
